MICROPHONE TIPS

- All sharing should be done from the microphone. Please line up at either microphone and wait to be recognized by the chair before speaking.
- Please speak directly into the microphone, and feel free to adjust the height as needed.
- Please try to speak slowly and clearly as a courtesy to the interpreters.
- If you are not at the microphone, please try to limit side conversations which may make it hard for others to hear.
- We ask that sharing be limited to two minutes. The green, yellow and red lights are there to help you remember.
- In order to preserve a safe environment for all viewpoints to be heard, please do not respond positively or negatively to what anyone shares. The exception is a round of “warm applause” to let people know they have gotten the red light.
