Tradition 11 - Our relations with the general public should be characterized by personal anonymity. We think A.A. ought to avoid sensational advertising. Our names and pictures as A.A. members ought not be broadcast, filmed, or publicly printed.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The function of the Archives Committee is to give the members of the Fellowship a sense of its past and an opportunity to study it. Furthermore, it is conceivable that there are members of the non-A.A. professional community who may have an interest in the beginnings and development of A.A. in this area. The main purpose of the archives, consistent with A.A.'s primary purpose, is to keep the record straight, so that myth does not predominate over fact as to the history of the Fellowship.

The primary task of the Archives Committee will be to collect, store, protect, catalog and organize CNCA historical materials. A secondary task is to provide access as determined by the committee to members of Alcoholics Anonymous and to those of the public who may have a valid need to review. such material with a commitment to preserve the anonymity of our members.
