ASSEMBLY ETTIQUETTE

IN-PERSON:

- Please line up at the microphone and wait to be recognized by the Chair before speaking.
- Please speak directly into the microphone, and feel free to adjust the height as needed.
- Please try to speak slowly and clearly as a courtesy to the interpreters.
- If you are not at the microphone, please try to limit side conversations which may make it hard for others to hear.
- During the business meeting, we ask that sharing be limited to 90 seconds. The green, yellow and red lights are there to help you remember.
- In order to preserve a safe environment for all viewpoints to be heard, please do not respond positively or negatively to shares. The exception is a round of “warm applause” to let people know they have gotten the red light.

ONLINE:

- Use a wired headset or your computer system microphone. It is strongly suggested to not use a bluetooth device.
- Select your language and turn closed captions on or off according to your preference.
- Please raise your virtual hand to speak.
- After the Chair calls on you, you will be invited to unmute by a tech host.
- Please turn on your camera when you share. If your wifi is unstable, turn on your camera while you introduce yourself and then turn it off to save bandwidth.
- Speak slowly and clearly as a courtesy to the interpreters.
- While on camera, please do not engage in distracting activities, such as driving, walking, etc. Please be mindful of your facial expressions so that all feel safe to share.
- Chat will be available to Host/Co-Host only during the program, but will be set to public and private before, after and during break
